PMUA Chairperson speaks at NFBPA Conference

PMUA Chairperson Mrs. Carol Brokaw served as a panelist at this weeks NFBPA Forum during a workshop entitled "A Three-Way Affair – Tightening the Bonds Between Local Government, Immigrants, and Established Residents".

Commissioner Brokaw shared recommendations, tools and solutions that can help relieve pressures in the community by working closely with local government. She addressed the concerns and challenges of immigrant integration and talked about how immigrant integration creates opportunities for all people.

This forum was moderated by PMUA Commissioner Rev. Tracey L. Brown.
